

To our valued customers,

We would like to take a moment to sincerely thank you for your many years of support and patronage at our Birmingham location. It has truly been an honor serving the Birmingham community.

We would also like to share that the Birmingham location has officially transferred to new ownership and is no longer operated by Papa Joe's Gourmet Markets.

We appreciate your understanding during this transition, and we hope you will continue to shop with us at our Rochester location.

☒ All gift cards purchased through Papa Joe's will continue to be accepted at our Rochester location as well as our Hospital locations.

☒ All Shopper Card points will also remain active and can be used at the Rochester location.

Thank you again for your loyalty, support, and for allowing us to be part of the Birmingham community for so many years. We look forward to serving you at our Rochester location.

With gratitude,

Papa Joe's Gourmet Markets
